

William Bussey

William Bussey has spent his entire 42-year career in career- technical education. Starting out as a Vocational Agriculture teacher and then moving into administration as a secondary supervisor at C-TEC of Licking County. He moved on after eight years to be director of Adult Education at Eastland- Fairfield Career Technical Schools for eleven years. Bill was superintendent at Mid-East Career Technical Centers for a period of fifteen years and was Director of the Office of Career-Technical Education at the Ohio Department of Education from August of 2014 through August of 2015. The past year and a half he has spent at the Delaware Area Career Center as Director of Adult Operations and is currently Executive Director of the Ohio Technical Centers.

Bill has held many leadership positions throughout his career. He has been President of Ohio ACTE, the Ohio Association of Career Technical Superintendents, the Adult Education Division of Ohio ACTE, and NCLA.

Bill is passionate about Career -Technical Education and is excited to be working more directly with adult education administrators again.