

Jerome R Brockway PhD

Jerome R Brockway PhD (Jerry) is the Superintendent of the Ashtabula County Technical & Career Center since 1989. Prior to this position he was the Superintendent of Ashtabula County from 1989 to 2001. He held both Superintendents' positions for 12 years. He has held positions at all levels of education over his forty-eight years in education.

He is very active in economic development as he serves on the Ashtabula County Port Authority Board, Ashtabula County 503 Board, the three County Workforce Investment Board and Junior Achievement Advisory Board of Ashtabula County Board. Is a member of all the Chamber of Commences in the county and trustee of the Growth Partnership of Ashtabula County.

He serves on several Statewide Boards and committees. Currently Chair of the Ohio State Board of Career Colleges and Schools, appointed by Governor Kasich in November 2015.

Jerry married to Bonnie (Bloom). They reside in Jefferson Ohio. They have five grown children and six grandchildren. The latest grandchild, Colton James Elly was born March 4, 2016.